Car Ownership On Rise In Local Area

138 CARS OWNED PER 100 HOUSEHOLDS

Residents of Appomattox County are getting a big way automobile-wise, it is learned in the last few years, a national survey shows.

As a result, the number of cars on local roads – already heavy – is increasing rapidly.

The increase is attributed chiefly to the income gains which have been made in the area. It has brought bigger and better cars to the roads and highways. It has also increased the proportion of families owning two or more cars.

As a result, the family car has a greater economic and social impact than usual on the local economy. A sizeable part of the family budget is allocated for its purchase and maintenance.

The figures show that the amount spent by car owners in the area for gasoline, motor oil, tires, batteries, accessories and installation charges is about ...
